

ICLC Program waiver for minor participants – ALAJUELA PROGRAM

Attention: Minor participants (less than 18 year old) & parents/guardians
Please read carefully, sign and send to ICLC scanned: info@iclc.ws

1. Costa Rican host families and ICLC Administration will only accept minor participants if there is a serious compromise to obey all rules and guidelines established, including the rule of zero tolerance to alcohol, cigarettes or consumption of any other drugs.
2. During their participation on ICLC Language Program minor participants will not have an escort. The host family, ICLC Administration and ICLC staff will only play a supervisory role.
3. Minors participating on the program, without an adult companion, must be mature enough to come and go to ICLC campus, to come and go to the closest towns and to come and go the host family house independently.
4. In regard to arrival date: If the minor participant will be traveling to Costa Rica accompanied by a flight attendant, parents in the home country must inform ICLC registration office immediately, to provide the name of the person that will receive the minor participant at Juan Santamaria International Airport (SJO) in Costa Rica.
5. If in the home country or on the way to Costa Rica parents find out that there is a flight delay or a flight cancellation, please immediately contact the following emergency numbers. ICLC directors will contact the Costa Rican host family assigned.

Sonia Rojas C., ICLC Administrative Director: (506) 2438-6202 srojas@iclc.ws
Ronny García M, ICLC Academic Director: (506) 8382-6384 rgarcia@iclc.ws

6. On the first Monday, the participant will receive an orientation session at ICLC campus.
7. Each host family has personal house rules, reason for participants to be in constant communication with the host parents, in order to follow their advice and recommendations.
8. The home stay is for participants only; guests or other minor participants cannot be brought to the homestay.
9. Minor participants are expected to be courteous and respectful guests and must obey the house rules and local laws.
10. The host family will offer the participant typical Costa Rican breakfast and typical dinner (lunch is not included in the program). Host families will not change their food habits while receiving participants from other countries.
11. If the minor participant cannot eat something, is acceptable to leave food in the plate. Please, never throw food on the garbage.
12. The host family will be in charge of laundry but the minor participant is responsible for washing underwear daily. Please never leave dirty undergarments in the bedroom.
13. Minor participants must have a budget of around $6 per day to use taxi service to come to ICLC campus in the morning and to go to the house after class.
14. Minor participants must have a budget of around $7 per day for daily lunch.
15. Participants cannot make phone calls from the homestay. Parents in the home country can call the participant at the homestay daily (after 6:00 p.m.) if desire. It is customary to keep calls brief.
16. Wi-Fi is available at no extra charge on the cafeteria at ICLC campus. Participants can bring own iPhone, iPod, iPad, Black Berry, laptop, tablet or any other electronic device for the international communications. Personal headphones are recommended to call using Skype for example.

17. Some participants prefer to make (before arrival) a contract with their own telephone companies in the United States to obtain the international service for international calls but, depending on the company, that service could be very expensive. It is recommended to check costs with your own telephone company before arriving to Costa Rica.
18. In Costa Rica it is possible to buy a pre-paid phone since the first day of the program for about $50 (this includes de pre-paid card with a few minutes of initial time) and you can keep recharging the pre-paid card on supermarkets or pharmacies. Do not buy the pre-paid phone in the US because the codes are not the same and you will not be able to install the local pre-paid cards.
19. Every day, participants are expected to be at the homestay at 6:00 p.m. In Costa Rica it gets dark around 6:00 p.m. and after dark streets will be solitary. Going out of the house when is dark could be very dangerous and risky.
20. If the host family informs ICLC Administration that a minor participant disrespected the 6:00 p.m. curfew, parents/guardians in the home country will be informed immediately through e-mail or phone call, the participant will return to the home country before the end of the program and no refunds will be provided.
21. If the minor participant needs a special permission to go out past 6:00 p.m., parents in the home country will need to inform ICLC Administration first. In this specific case the minor participant must be accompanied by an adult group leader, must come and go in taxi service or private transportation and arrival to the host family must be at 10:00 p.m. as late.
22. To be able to book weekend trips for 1 day, minors must have parents' consent permitting the minor participant to travel independently. Travel independently is with NO ICLC supervision at all.
23. For minors, travel independently on an overnight trip IS NOT permitted at all. When traveling independently for 1 day the minor participant must return to the house the same day of the trip and before 6:00 p.m.
24. Travel independently has high risks and parents in the home country must take action to any unexpected situation that might arise during the minor's independent trip. This includes traveling to Costa Rica to resolve a grave incident or any other serious situation. Travel costs for the parent's trip to Costa Rica will be covered for parents.
25. Minor participants cannot enter, for any reason, to bars or discotheques. If ICLC Administration is informed that a minor participant disrespects this important rule, parents/guardians in the home country will be immediately informed through e-mail or phone call.
26. Drugs and alcohol are banned completely.
27. Minor participants cannot buy any type of alcoholic beverages in a supermarket or store, because that action goes against the Costa Rican legislations.
28. It is absolutely forbidden for minor participants to come to ICLC or to stay in the home of the Costa Rican host family under the effects of drugs or alcohol.
29. Any use of drug or alcohol may cause the immediate termination as a student of this Institution, including cancellation of the host family program and no refunds will be provided.
30. In regard to change on departure date: Parents must contact ICLC Administration directly, if necessary to request an extension of the Program. Extra homestay days are available only for courteous and respectful participants. The extra charge for additional host family accommodation will be $30 per night.
31. In regard to airport transfer on departure date: Local taxi driver will take the minor participant to Juan Santamaría International Airport. The minor participant will pay for the service.
32. If for some reason the minor participant misses the plane on departure date, the participant must contact ICLC emergency numbers immediately (2438-6202 or 8382-6384) to return to the same host family accommodation. Minor participants are not allowed to spend a night in a hotel accommodation, alone. Additional charge for accommodation must be covered for the minor participant if this incident happens.

ICLC Program Waiver for minor participants

33. ICLC reserves the right to refuse to serve, cancel and/or terminate participation for any person who fails to comply with the policies of ICLC program, or for any other reason deemed necessary at the sole discretion of ICLC Administration. We reserve the right without escort or refund to send home any participant who violates the rules stated above at the expense of the participant or his/her family.

*In regard to a river rafting adventure, please review the following page:

The river rafting experience is a high risk adventure. If minor participants wish to participate in a river rafting activity parents must sign an additional consent on page #4.

Very important information

* In regard to the river rafting trip:

It is indispensable that parents and participants are informed that from June to October it is rainy season in Costa Rica and river rafting is an adventure trip with high risks.

If you agree that your son or daughter participate in this hazardous activity you must be aware that neither ICLC nor the tour operator will be responsible for any accidents or incidents that may occur during the excursion.

Please complete the following information with the name of the participant and re-confirm that your son or daughter has your approval to participate in the river rafting trip.

Without parents consent signed, minor participants will not be permitted to register on this trip.

Do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely yours,

Sonia Rojas C.
ICLC Administrative Director
