About... the restaurants

Soda

Are usually a combination of a family run restaurant, and a convenience store that sometimes doubles as a bar or disco after the sun goes down. Prices for a full meal including a beverage generally range from US$3 to about US$6 and the quality can be quite variable.

Típico

These restaurants are sort of upscale sodas, which offers the Costa Rican Typical Cuisine based on agricultural tradition. Their fare is a little bit more expensive than the Sodas. Meals are accompanied by fresh corn tortillas, black beans, refrescos (fresh fruit juice), rice and salad.

Fast Food

Besides the Sodas which can be considered sort of freelance fast food, there is the usual assortment of megafranchise fast food including but certainly not limited to, McDonalds, Pizza Hut, and Kentucky fried chicken. The prices and fare are approximately the same as they are anywhere else in the world.
