

ICLC Newsletter

Visit ICLC campus in Alajuela, Costa Rica for bird watching

Clay-colored robin

Roadside hawk

Ferruginous pygmy-owl

Brown jay

Tropical kingbird

Cinnamon hummingbird

The following preliminary list of birds observed at ICLC was compiled from 16 May through 13 June, 2008. If you observe additional species at ICLC, please contact Professor Dowler at the e-mail address below, to update the list.

Blue-crowned motmot

Social flycatcher

Squirrel cuckoo

Great kiskadee

Rufous-naped wren

Black vulture

Turkey vulture

Black-bellied whistling duck

Spotted-bellied bobwhite

Red-billed pigeon

Blue and white swallow

White-winged dove

Inca dove

Blue-gray tanager

Great-tailed grackle

Hoffman's woodpecker

Lineated woodpecker

Rufous-capped warbler

Robert Dowler
Department of Biology
Angelo State University
San Angelo, Texas 76901
Robert.Dowler@angelo.edu

www.iclc.ws